Overview of Ministry

To alleviate the suffering of the people of Embu, Kenya by bringing water to each farm and the gospel to each person.

- To bring water to each of the 2200 farms in the initial area by Dec. 2009. To repeat this process three other times until the water flows readily in the promised area.
- To bring Bibles and resources for Christian leaders starting with 50 by Jan. 2008.
- To train local teams of teachers of Sunday School children ages 7-12 and provide the materials and resources to teach the children starting with 20 in Jan. of 2008.

To maximize the benefit of the water brought

- To create a demonstration farm for modeling agricultural and irrigation techniques.

Potential Alice Water Project Opportunities to Get Involved

1. Participate financially.

One missionary challenged Alice Water Project to, “Ask people to give at least the same amount as their water bill each month.”

2. Provide expertise in on-site project management, agriculture, and micro-business.

3. Provide resources both theological and Bibles for the people of Embu.
